

Proverbs 26

Englische King James Version von 1611/1769 mit Strong's

1 As snow^{H7950} in summer^{H7019}, and as rain^{H4306} in harvest^{H7105}, so honour^{H3519} is not seemly^{H5000} for a fool^{H3684}.

2 As the bird^{H6833} by wandering^{H5110}, as the swallow^{H1866} by flying^{H5774}, so the curse^{H7045} causeless^{H2600} shall not come^{H935}.

3 A whip^{H7752} for the horse^{H5483}, a bridle^{H4964} for the ass^{H2543}, and a rod^{H7626} for the fool's^{H3684} back^{H1460}.

4 Answer^{H6030} not a fool^{H3684} according to his folly^{H200}, lest thou also be like^{H7737} unto him. 5 Answer^{H6030} a fool^{H3684} according to his folly^{H200}, lest he be wise^{H2450} in his own conceit^{H5869} 1.

6 He that sendeth^{H7971} a message^{H1697} by the hand^{H3027} of a fool^{H3684} cutteth off^{H7096} the feet^{H7272}, and drinketh^{H8354} damage^{H2555} 2. 7 The legs^{H7785} of the lame^{H6455} are not equal^{H1809}: so is a parable^{H4912} in the mouth^{H6310} of fools^{H3684} 3. 8 As he that bindeth^{H6872} a stone^{H6887} in a sling^{H4773}, so is he that giveth^{H5414} honour^{H3519} to a fool^{H3684} 4. 9 As a thorn^{H2336} goeth up^{H5927} into the hand^{H3027} of a drunkard^{H7910}, so is a parable^{H4912} in the mouth^{H6310} of fools^{H3684}.

10 The great^{H7227} God that formed^{H2342} all things both rewardeth^{H7936} the fool^{H3684}, and rewardeth^{H7936} transgressors^{H5674} 5.

11 As a dog^{H3611} returneth^{H7725} to his vomit^{H6892}, so a fool^{H3684} returneth^{H8138} to his folly^{H200} 6.

12 Seest^{H7200} thou a man^{H376} wise^{H2450} in his own conceit^{H5869}? there is more hope^{H8615} of a fool^{H3684} than of him.

13 The slothful^{H6102} man saith^{H559}, There is a lion^{H7826} in the way^{H1870}; a lion^{H738} is in the streets^{H7339}.

14 As the door^{H1817} turneth^{H5437} upon his hinges^{H6735}, so doth the slothful^{H6102} upon his bed^{H4296}.

15 The slothful^{H6102} hideth^{H2934} his hand^{H3027} in his bosom^{H6747}; it grieveth^{H3811} him to bring it again^{H7725} to his mouth^{H6310} 7.

16 The sluggard^{H6102} is wiser^{H2450} in his own conceit^{H5869} than seven men^{H7651} that can render^{H7725} a reason^{H2940}.

17 He that passeth by^{H5674}, and meddleth^{H5674} with strife^{H7379} belonging not to him, is like one that taketh^{H2388} a dog^{H3611} by the ears^{H241} 8.

18 As a mad^{H3856} man who casteth^{H3384} firebrands^{H2131}, arrows^{H2671}, and death^{H4194} 9, 19 So is the man^{H376} that deceiveth^{H7411} his neighbour^{H7453}, and saith^{H559}, Am not I in sport^{H7832}?

20 Where no^{H657} wood^{H6086} is, there the fire^{H784} goeth out^{H3518}: so where there is no talebearer^{H5372}, the strife^{H4066} ceaseth^{H8367} 101112. 21 As coals^{H6352} are to burning coals^{H1513}, and wood^{H6086} to fire^{H784}; so is a contentious^{H4079} man^{H376} to kindle^{H2787} strife^{H7379}. 22 The words^{H1697} of a talebearer^{H5372} are as wounds^{H3859}, and they go down^{H3381} into the innermost parts^{H2315} of the belly^{H990} 13.

23 Burning^{H1814} lips^{H8193} and a wicked^{H7451} heart^{H3820} are like a potsherd^{H2789} covered^{H6823} with silver^{H3701} dross^{H5509}.

24 He that hateth^{H8130} dissembleth^{H5234} with his lips^{H8193}, and layeth up^{H7896} deceit^{H4820} within^{H7130} him;¹⁴ 25 When he speaketh^{H6963} fair^{H2603}, believe^{H539} him not: for there are seven^{H7651} abominations^{H8441} in his heart^{H3820}.¹⁵ 26 Whose hatred^{H8135} is covered^{H3680} by deceit^{H4860}, his wickedness^{H7451} shall be shewed^{H1540} before the whole congregation^{H6951}.¹⁶

27 Whoso diggeth^{H3738} a pit^{H7845} shall fall^{H5307} therein: and he that rolleth^{H1556} a stone^{H68}, it will return^{H7725} upon him.

28 A lying^{H8267} tongue^{H3956} hateth^{H8130} those that are afflicted^{H1790} by it; and a flattering^{H2509} mouth^{H6310} worketh^{H6213} ruin^{H4072}.
