

Psalm 141

Englische King James Version von 1611/1769 mit Strongs

1 A Psalm^{H4210} of David^{H1732}. LORD^{H3068}, I cry^{H7121} unto thee: make haste^{H2363} unto me; give ear^{H238} unto my voice^{H6963}, when I cry^{H7121} unto thee. 2 Let my prayer^{H8605} be set forth^{H3559} before^{H6440} thee as incense^{H7004}, and the lifting up^{H4864} of my hands^{H3709} as the evening^{H6153} sacrifice^{H4503}. 3 Set^{H7896} a watch^{H8108}, O LORD^{H3068}, before my mouth^{H6310}; keep^{H5341} the door^{H1817} of my lips^{H8193}. 4 Incline^{H5186} not my heart^{H3820} to any evil^{H7451} thing^{H1697}, to practise^{H5953} wicked^{H7562} works^{H5949} with men^{H376} that work^{H6466} iniquity^{H205}: and let me not eat^{H3898} of their dainties^{H4516}.

5 Let the righteous^{H6662} smite^{H1986} me; it shall be a kindness^{H2617}: and let him reprove^{H3198} me; it shall be an excellent^{H7218} oil^{H8081}, which shall not break^{H5106} my head^{H7218}: for yet my prayer^{H8605} also shall be in their calamities^{H7451}. 6 When their judges^{H8199} are overthrown^{H8058} in stony^{H5553} places^{H3027}, they shall hear^{H8085} my words^{H561}; for they are sweet^{H5276}. 7 Our bones^{H6106} are scattered^{H6340} at the grave's^{H7585} mouth^{H6310}, as when one cutteth^{H6398} and cleaveth^{H1234} wood upon the earth^{H776}. 8 But mine eyes^{H5869} are unto thee, O GOD^{H3069} the Lord^{H136}: in thee is my trust^{H2620}; leave^{H6168} not my soul^{H5315} destitute^{H6168}. 9 Keep^{H8104} me from the snares^{H3027} which they have laid^{H3369} for me, and the gins^{H4170} of the workers^{H6466} of iniquity^{H205}. 10 Let the wicked^{H7563} fall^{H5307} into their own nets^{H4364}, whilst that I withal^{H3162} escape^{H5674}.
